Substantive session of 2013
Geneva, 1-26 July 2013
Item 14 (e) of the provisional agenda*
Social and human rights questions: United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees

Note verbale dated 16 May 2013 from the Permanent Mission of the Czech Republic to the United Nations addressed to the Secretary-General

The Permanent Mission of the Czech Republic to the United Nations presents its compliments to the Secretary-General of the United Nations and has the honour to inform him about the decision of the Government of the Czech Republic to become a member of the Executive Committee of the Programme of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees.

The Czech Republic is fully committed to the aims of the Programme of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees. The Czech Republic is a party to the Convention relating to the Status of Refugees of 1951 and the Protocol relating to the Status of Refugees of 1967. The Czech Republic is a Standing Committee observer.

The Czech Republic is dedicated to the improvement of the situation of refugees through international and regional cooperation, as well as cooperation at the national level. The Czech Republic has demonstrated a strong interest in and devotion to the solution of the problems of refugees, internally displaced persons and stateless persons both internationally and nationally.

The Czech Republic is ready to cooperate fully with all members of the Executive Committee in order to find constructive solutions to the challenges facing the Programme of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees.

To this end, the Government of the Czech Republic hopes that the Economic and Social Council will give favourable consideration to this request and make a recommendation to the General Assembly to enlarge the membership of the Executive Committee.
